Under the leadership George Wagoner the Terrific Kids had a great year once again serving over 400 children. His committee of Jack Detrick, Jim Kelleher, Carol and Rich Stahler, Joan Van Note, Connie Wagoner and Betty Limanni enjoyed presenting certificates to students at Walnut Street, Evergreen, West End and Woodbury Heights Schools this school year.

Plant a flower and help a child to grow! Carol Stahler reports that our first Spring Flower Sale was very successful. Our club sold over 100 flats of annuals and 200 geraniums. Michael William Florist and Green House of Thorofare provided the flowers, hanging baskets, and his expertise for our sale. Thanks to all of our members who sold beautiful springs flowers.

On Thursday, May 9, 2013 we elected officers for 2013-2014:

President: Jim Meehan
Immediate Past Pres: Richard Stahler
President Elect:
Secretary: Betty Limanni
Treasurer: Tony Currier

Board Members
2 Year term:
Ed Barry
Claire Essig
George Wagoner

Board Members
1 Year term:
John Goetsch
Carol Stahler
Joan Van Note

Donald Currier, nephew of our Tony Currier, talked about his military career to us on May 9th. Donald has had a long career in the military. After 4 years of enlistment in the Military Police in the Army, Donald enlisted in a Military Police Unit of the California National Guard. At this time Don completed college and then Law School. He was promoted to the Brigade Commander of the 49th Military Police Brigade of the California Army National Guard. Tony was there at that prestigious ceremony. He has had 5 different deployments during his career. He is currently enjoying retirement.

Thank you to everyone who participated in the last Aktion Club meeting on May 17th. The members are very pleased to report that they have collected $57.00 in donations for the ELIMINATE PROJECT from the sale of their ribbons. GREAT JOB!! A check will be sent to Kiwanis International within the next week reports Brenda Powell.

Fat Rick's will cater our Chicken BBQ on June 8th from 2-6pm at the Child Development Center, rain or shine. Tickets are $12.00 which includes ½ chicken, farm fresh corn on the cob, creamy potato salad, tomato salad, roll & butter. Connie has given everyone in our club tickets to sell. This is a great fund raiser will benefit the Kiwanis Club of Greater Woodbury Youth Programs. Questions ask: George or Connie Wagoner at 848-2910. Please sign up to work at our BBQ.

The Child Development Center will host a Wine & Cheese Event on Friday, June 14, 6-9pm at 2 East Maple Street, Wenonah. Admission is: $25.00. Contact Phyllis Folk at 845-2243 or at 36 Carpenter St., Woodbury.

On Memorial Day, May 27th, our Greater Woodbury Kiwanis Club laid a wreath at the WWII Memorial Park in Woodbury. US Congressman, Rob Andrews, from NJ's 1st Congressional District was part of the program. After the dedication Connie and George Wagoner, Claire Essig, John Goetsch, Joan Van Note, and Betty Limanni posed for a picture.
