Claire Essig relates that our adopted class from St. John of God joined ten Kiwanians at the Granada Room at the school for an ice cream social. Four children, their teacher and aides picked out the goodies to put on the ice cream for the children. We all enjoyed a good visit.

Three HOBY (Hugh O'Brien Youth) sponsored by our club have gone to the Leadership Seminar and will be invited to lunch in August to tell us about their week-end.

Kathleen O'Connor told us that The Major Emphasis Committee has finished their school year time at the Child Development Center. On June 22nd Jim Kelleher's wife and daughter did the honors. Connie Wagoner's friend and fellow retired teacher, Ann Fennimore, was also recently our guest reader. Thank you to all of the Kiwanians who read, especially the ones who read more than once. We will start up reading again in the fall.

Jeff and Theresa Morris and the rest of the committee want thank you to all who helped with the Woodbury Community Cocktail Party on June 8, 2011 at Nicolosi's. Proceeds benefited the opening of a Woodbury Unit of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Gloucester County. The event was supported by 150 business and community leaders from throughout the greater Woodbury region. John Michael Paz, found of Godwin Pumps, was honored as Boys & Girls Clubs Citizen of the Year.

---

Debbie from the Chocolatier on 17 South Broad Street spoke to us on June 16th about 2 fund raisers: one in November and one in February. They make homemade chocolates and also sell assorted nuts. www.njchocolatier.com

---

Howard supplied the flowers for Jim, Connie, George, Jay and his wife to clean up and plant them at our triangle plot.
